you to Mr Johnston, Fordell staff and families who helped us out on the day. Being a small school, we greatly appreciate all your help. Over the page are the placings for each year group. A big congratulations to MIRO House for being the overall house winners for the 2018 Fordell School Cross Country - great commitment from you all. "Home & Garden Ramble" Fordell Country - Tickets are on sale, $35 per person. You can also purchase a delicious picnic hamper for $15 per person. Families we will be needing your help with this before and on the day of the Ramble.

School Bus Drop Off and Pick Up - Please remember the speed limit when driving past a stationary school bus is 20km. We have noticed a lot of cars driving past the bus, especially on Number 2 Line, at 100km. Please help to keep all of our children safe by slowing down when driving past the school bus in the morning and afternoons.

Mathex - Well done to all our teams that competed in the Wanganui Mathex competition on Wednesday night. It sure was a tough competition and all Fordell students showed Responsibility, being committed, and Compassion, working as a team. The results were Year 5 First Place - Gold, Year 6 - Third Place - Bronze, Year 7 - 1 point of being third, Year 8 - put in a strong performance.

Enjoy a fordellastic weekend. Ngā mihi nui

Yvette Moorhouse, Principal

The Fall of the Titanic

In a dark stormy night four adults went into a blue and white boat called Mary Wether. They were traveling

Across the cold Antarctic ocean when...Mary said "hey this boats named after me" "I thought that would be a scary part said Sam annoyingly. Any way they were going across it to get to the USA but they didn't want to go by plane because... Lucy gets terrible motion sickness. I thought that would be a scary part too grumbles Sam.

A stormy wind approached the ship...CRASH! Captain we have to stop there's a float of thick ice stop there". The boat sprung a BIG leak."Ahhhhhhh" the people of the ship screamed. The boat was filling up with water. Get into the life boats Mary Wether to USA we need immediate backup I repeat we need immediate backup!!!!!!!!!!!!!!Everyone was running to the brown life boats when a huge ship came. "Hold on to the brown ropes we'll pull you up". But the water was too cold "come closer" they all yelled the rescuers went a little closer. One by one people climbed up.

There were 2000 people before departure but when they went on the ship there were only 999."Sam Lucy Mary where are you?" John Marys unconscious "Mary!" cried John "cough cough" Mary you're okay" sighed John happily they all sailed home and lived happily ever after the end :]

Titanic

This story written by Caitlin Greenwood

In 1922 there lived a young explorer named Jack. One day his boss said that he had to study the animals of Antarctica. If he didn't he was sure to get fired. So he boarded what was said to be the strongest ship in the world. He was about to go on an amazing adventure, he climbed aboard the slippery wooden ship. There was about 3,000 people on it. He was scared he was never too keen about ships. The next day they set sail. He sighed and looked at the fish while writing their breed down in his notebook. Then Suddenly the fish swam away, he looked in front of him and saw gigantic icebergs everywhere.

The boat rocked side to side and then crash!!!!The boat hit a massive iceberg everyone screamed. "Attention caption here all rich people and women with children hop on these strong lifeboats. "Oh no Jack can't hop on, the ship slowly started to submerge into the water. That's when Jack met Rose. Help! Help me I'm sinking!!!Rose screamed Jack came in the nick of time. He lifted her onto a thick iceberg and jumped on the one next to her. "Thanks" she said out of breath." You're welcome" he sighed.1 day later some people came to save the survivors they blew there whistles for 8 full hours, when finally the people came to save them.

"Finally" they sighed as the climbed into the rescue boat and got given warm blankets and a hot drink. Ten years later they still look back from when the Titanic fell.

Learning & Playing in Room 3

Room 3's entrance was transformed into a saw mill this week. There were so many logs to transport that we had to use our imaginations to fit them all on; utilising different vehicles and creating a fork lift to help get the job done. There were a few challenges as those logs tended to roll off the trucks, causing road blockages. There were several forestry and mill workers involved, planning and problem-solving together. The logs had to be counted and distributed between the vehicles, where the drivers were ready. All the logs were safely delivered and the site cleared before the day was done. Just play? So much more: oral language, learning muscles (reciprocity, resilience, reflectiveness and resourcefulness), social skills, social science, problem solving, technology, maths and creative thinking!

Writing

Room 3 recently received a letter from Gerald the Giant. He had lost his pencils and needed our help to find them so he could write his shopping list. We knew where they were! The children got busy writing to Gerald to help him out. Some of them even helped him with his shopping list.

Dear Gerald the Giant,
I have found your pencils for you.
Here is a shopping list: 800 boxes of bananas, 90000 boxes of pears, 100 cans of baked beans, 88 bars of chocolate, 20 litres of milk and 20 buns.

From Charlotte Pullins

Dear Gerald Giant,
Your pencils are in town by the river. Someone has found them. Are you happy that we have found them? They are red and black.
From Greta

Shopping list (by Anthony)
10 boxes of bananas
1000000 chocolates
120 pears

Shopping list (Tatum)
Box of muesli bars, bananas, 16 apples, 14 buns, 121 chocolates.

Dear Gerald,
Your pencils are by the river. What do you do with your pencils?
