Senior Hub Camps – Last week I had the privilege to be part of both the Year 7&8 and Year 5&6 camps. A credit to the Fordell Senior Hub team who quickly adapted camps to ensure students, helpers and staff were safe from being exposed to Covid-19 hotspots that started popping up. While with these students I again noticed the amazing students we have at Fordell School, seeing their Compassion and support for each other especially when tackling challenges that push them outside their comfort zones. It sure made me proud to be their principal. A huge thank you to our wonderful group of parent helpers who were part of these camps, which help to make these camps possible. Please check out the many photos from these camps that capture the excitement, challenges and fun these students had during the week on our Fordell School Facebook page under photos.

Fordell Garden Ramble – The Fordell Garden Ramble is this week. Thank you to all our families, you all have and will be part of this wonderful fundraiser from giving up your time to garden, bake, run BBQs, stalls, and oversee homes. I would like to make a special mention to the Fordell Fundraising Committee you are an amazing group of parents who have spent many hours organizing this event and we all thank you for this. Please, if you know of anyone wanting to attend the Ramble tickets are selling out fast. They can be purchased through fordellramble@fordell.school.nz It sure is going to be a great day with lots of beautiful gardens to enjoy.

Have a fantastic weekend – Yvette Moorhouse, Principal

After school pick up

We have been teaching our students to use the pathways that surround our school carpark. Please support your child/children by following the same expectations. We currently have a lot of traffic outside our gates, and we want to ensure the safety of all students. We encourage our students to wait behind our school gates to be collected.

Under level 2 we still encourage families to wait on the other side of the school fence and please wear a mask.

Year 5 & 6 Camp

I see the tall black water slide. I started to walk up the wet muddy cold stairs. I was already shaking and my teeth were chattering. I lined up and it was finally my turn. "Abi get out of my way," I yelled. I slowly sat down and Daryll pushed me so fast. Ahh!! Water splashed all over me. I reached the bottom of the water slide. It was amazing but cold.

As I jumped out from behind the front barricade I ran as fast as I could. I dived too the ground so I did not get hit by an arrow. I ran to the post and took a deep breath and stretched the bow. I looked at where the arrow was going to hit and let go. The arrow zipped through the air and hit the barricade. Darn it! Then I noticed that the arrow had rebounded, and it hit the target. Yes!

As I stood at the top of the slide, I was like that's big! I walk up the hill and slipped into the cold, I could not feel my toes 3 2 1 zoom! I went so fast down the slide that I had to shut my eyes. Yippee! I did it, I was so proud of myself that I went down it again, it was so much fun, thank you Ms Mair for a great camp!

My favourite thing about camp was the kayaking because we saw baby eels. It was my first time kayaking lots of people said you are doing a really good job, when I first saw the eels, I screamed. There were ducking's in the muddy pond too. The rain was nice and cold. By Pippa Beatson

Alright, today we will be making rafts out of rope, bamboo and barrels. Now the test, will it float? Dum! Dum! Dum! And surprisingly the hunk of junk floated, until a barrel came loose in the middle of the lake. Julian jumped up and yelled "I commit war" and sprang off the raft and so did every body else and the war was over..... for now!

By Emily Mackintosh

"It's my turn", says Ma as I climb up. I'm shaking with fear. I'm halfway up, my hands are getting slippery. "Ahh"!! My foot has no grip. I can't climb. I tried to go on the rock that has more grip, but none of the rocks by me had good grip. I hate to sayI let go. "nooo"!!! I thought I would hit myself but I didn't. So far I have gone the highest than anyone else in my group. Then someone reached my height :(But that is ok because it was so much fun.
